

NEW POETS OF THE AMERICAN WEST

COME MEET THE POETS INCLUDED IN THE ANTHOLOGY!

SPONSORED BY THE NORTHWEST NEW MEXICO ARTS COUNCIL AND FARMINGTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

POETRY READING

12.11.10
Saturday
3:00-4:30 pm

Farmington
Public Library
Multi-Purpose
Room

2101 Farmington
Avenue
Farmington, NM

ART

GOODTIMES, co

A member of San Francisco's Union of Street Poets in the Sixties & Seventies, Goodtimes is the founding poetry editor of Earth First! Journal (1981-1991) and poetry co-editor of Wild Earth (1991-2000).

WILLIAM PITT

ROOT, co

Has taught at Hunter College, Amherst, Interlochen Arts Academy, New York University and the University of Montana. He was Tuscon's first Poet Laureate and travels with his wife, Pamela Uschuk.

PAMELA USCHUK, co

Is author of many books of poems, including Crazy Love, which was just awarded the American Book Award. Uschuk teaches creative writing at Fort Lewis College in Durango.

TACEY ATSITTY, NM

Diné Tsénahabíinii (Sleep Rock People) and born for Ta'neeszahnii (Tangle People) from Cove, AZ. She is a recipient of the Truman Capote Creative Writing Fellowship. She is an alumnus of Brigham Young University and Institute of American Indian Arts, and currently in the MFA Creative Writing Program at Cornell University.

VENAYA YAZZIE, NM

Diné /Hopi was raised in the shadow of Dziłnaodithle (Huerfano Peak) located on the eastern region of the Navajo Nation in NM. Born into the Manyogans Clan, she believes that she was endowed with the divine gifts of the artistic way of life from her Diné and Pueblo clan relatives..

